Subject: David Cameron visit to Washington DC 19 April

Dear Hilary,

My apologies for the out of the blue email; I work in former PM, David Cameron's, office and have obtained your contact details from Viscount William Astor.

I am writing as Mr Cameron is due to be in Washington DC this Thursday 19 April for various events relating to the LSE-Oxford Commission on State Fragility, Growth and Development, which he co-chairs - and in particular, the Commission's report, which launches on Thursday.

I know Mr Cameron would welcome the opportunity to meet with Secretary Ross while he is in Washington. Mr Cameron has availability from 15:00-18:00 EDT on 19 April, and would be very happy to fit in with Secretary Ross' schedule.

Many thanks in advance for considering this request and we look forward to hearing from you as soon as convenient.

Kind regards,

Pippa

Good morning Hilary, are you and Wilbur available to attend this tribute dinner at the British Embassy residence for supporters of the International Student House, a wonderful place where 100 students from 31 countries reside while they are studying in DC. About 70 people will be in attendance at the dinner. VP Biden received the award in November and will not be at this event.

Let me know. Wishing you both a happy and healthy new year.
