Dear Ms. Shah:

This is the second response to the above-referenced Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of the Treasury (Treasury). The request asked for the following:

1. All records containing or documenting communications sent to or received by all staff, including officers, employees, and contractors, in Treasury's Office of Public Affairs (OPA) with the following organizations and domains:
  - Fox News or @foxnews.com
  - Breitbart News Network or @breitbart.com
  - CRTV.com or @crtv.com
  - The Blaze or @theblaze.com
  - NewsMax or @newsmaxtv.com
  - Daily Caller or @dailycaller.com
  - Daily Wire or @dailywire.com
  - One America News or @oann.com
  - Sinclair Broadcast Group or @sgbi.net

The search period is January 20, 2017 to the date of search.

In accordance with the parties' agreed upon schedule, as memorialized in the June 28, 2019 Joint Status Report, this constitutes Treasury's second production in this case. Since our first production, Treasury has reviewed 308 documents collected in response to your FOIA request. Of these, 163 documents are responsive to your request, consisting of 251 pages. These documents are being released in part, with redactions made pursuant to exemption (b)(6) to protect private email addresses and phone numbers. Treasury will continue to review and process documents and will provide another production not later than August 30, 2019.

Good morning,

My name is Philip with Neil Cavuto at Fox News Channel. Neil is very interested in speaking with Secretary Mnuchin regarding tax policy/reform, regulations and monetary policy. Neil is the number one business show on TV with millions of viewers every day.

Neil will be live in Washington DC February 28th and March 1st for the President's address to Congress. Can we set up an interview with Secretary Mnuchin for either of those days? We are able to come to the Secretary for the interview.

Hey Eric,

I was asked to reach out to you with logistics for a couple of interview opportunities with Secretary Mnuchin that our team at Treasury has discussed with Maria Bartiromo. The first one would be for this Thursday, and the second one for her Sunday show. We just got clearance from Secretary Mnuchin's scheduler to offer you some details on our proposals, but wanted to make sure that these would work before we lock them in.

1. We were able to secure the 8 AM time slot on Thursday morning (February 23) for a live interview with Secretary Mnuchin and Maria. General topics could include the Secretary's priorities in office, tax reform, his ongoing discussions with international financial counterparts, debt limit, housing finance, etc. We would like to do the interview from the Diplomatic room in Treasury, which is room #3311. The room is wired with fiber, which I'm told should allow for your FOX Business crew to get a direct feed. Our operations staff offered to allow your crew to set up lights and test the feed tomorrow afternoon (Wednesday) in order to avoid the need to get there as early Thursday morning. I will need to get from you who from the crew will be here in person. Also, wanted to confirm whether Maria would do the interview from DC or will she be in-studio in NY? We'll need WAVES details from your crew, etc. for clearing them into the Treasury building, including any vehicle that you might be bringing. I can put you in touch with our operations team, who can work through that process, but please feel free to respond directly to me with whatever details you have.
2. We have put a hold on the Secretary's schedule for Sunday at 10:00 AM. Maria had mentioned that she would like to have him on live for her Sunday morning show on FOX News. We would presume similar general topics. This would be the Secretary's first Sunday show appearance. We would need to work out whether that would be from our office here at Treasury, or if you would prefer to do it from a DC studio. Please let us know if you have a preference, as the Secretary's schedule may still be in flux a bit for Sunday.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any logistical questions, and please confirm that this works at your earliest convenience so that we can make arrangements with our operations team and for planning purposes.

Thanks Eric,

If you think your staff can get lights, etc. set up tomorrow night, and test the feed from our Diplomatic Room, then leave everything staged overnight, that would probably be our safest bet to ensure everything's in place before the live shot. If you have names of staff you'd like to assign, we should be able to get them cleared into Treasury for afternoon if you can get their info to us by tomorrow morning.

Much appreciated,

I wondered if Maria might stay and shoot her show in DC on Sunday. The Secretary prefers face-to-face interviews over satellite feeds whenever possible, so I'm glad to hear. Please do let us know location for Sunday as soon as you have it, as that is helpful for us for planning.

Martin Jimenez will be the photographer for the interview with Secretary Mnuchin tomorrow. His vitals are listed below. I've also enclosed the information of our bureau chief Bruce Becker – he'd like to stop by later today or later this week to introduce himself and meet the team. I have a hard pass, please let me know if you need anything else on my end. I don't think Martin can stop by earlier than 1pm today. I'd like to also stop by, but cannot do so until 2:15pm. What time would be convenient for you to have us arrive, either together or separately? Thank you and let me know if you need anything else. I'll follow up with a call.

I'll be your point of contact Friday Eric. Kristin is going to get me a list with everyone on crew's vitals ASAP. As long as I receive that this morning we should be good to go.

I think we settled on having your crew arrive at 11 AM. We'll need to meet at the 15th and Hamilton Ave. entrance to Treasury so that your crew / gear can get swept, then we'll escort you up to the Diplomatic Room for setup.

Good morning,

My name is Philip with Neil Cavuto at Fox News Channel. Neil is very interested in speaking with Secretary Mnuchin regarding tax policy/reform, regulations and monetary policy. Neil is the number one business show on TV with millions of viewers every day.

Neil will be live in Washington DC February 28th and March 1st for the President's address to Congress. Can we set up an interview with Secretary Mnuchin for either of those days? We are able to come to the Secretary for the interview.

Thank you,

Hey Philip,

We just were able to clear time on the Secretary's schedule for 9:30 AM on Wednesday, March 1, to tape the interview with Neil. That should hopefully give you time to cut and feed back to NY for both FBN and FNC shows. Please email back for final confirmation.

General high-level topics he has been talking about this week have been: priorities in office, tax reform, regulatory reform, housing finance, and international discussions with counterparts. Obviously, he'd also be responding to the Tuesday night speech, and general monetary policy. Let us know if you have other pressing subjects.

On logistics, we'd be able to get you in here to Treasury either the night before to pre-set lights, etc., or early Wednesday morning. We'll eventually need vitals for your whole contingent/crew.

Thanks, and looking forward to it!

U.S. Department of the Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Ave., NW Washington DC

I'd say to have her come in through the Pennsylvania Ave entrance, by 15th and Pennsylvania Ave. Do you know what time she'll arrive? We can have someone meet her down there and escort her up.

We are going to set you up for the interview in the Andrew Johnson Suite, it's one of the most historic offices in the building and has great optics.

Thanks,
Seth

Good morning, Seth

We are excited to see you and Sec. Mnuchin later today.

Just to recap, the crew enters on 15th and Hamilton St., at 11a.

Does Maria, me and my colleague, Tami, arrive at the same location?
What time do you advise for us to arrive, i.e. 1pm. Will that clear us to enter, get settled into
The rooms we are taping, etc.

Finally, post the one-on-one taping
We like to film Sec. Mnuchin, in his office quickly and do a walk and talk outside the Treasury bldg..

This would be fantastic visual, different, fun and air, on MB's FBN morning show, Monday
Probably, some on her Sunday show too. Just need to see, what tape we come back with etc.

My cell is (b)(6) if you need me.

Thank you !
Eric

We've discussed a possible walk of the halls, or a walk outside (it's supposed to be 74 degrees again). I'm sure we can figure something out.

If your crew can arrive at the entrance at 15th and Hamilton Street at 11 AM with all of their gear, that's where they'll get swept, etc. It shouldn't take more than 25 minutes or so.

Thanks,
Seth

Hey Eric, if you arrive by 1 pm you should be good. Crew at 11 am at 15th and Hamilton for sweep. You and Maria should enter through main Pennsylvania Ave and 15 entrance. I forgot to ask, will you have a makeup artist for the Secretary with your team?

We're still locking down the room for the interview, may be same room we used earlier this week based on scheduling of other options. Sounds like a walk and talk outside and quick shot of the Secretary's office might work. We'll figure it out.

Thanks Michele.

The makeup bag can go through the North entrance no problem, it's equivalent of airport security. But cameras and video equipment need to go through the K9 screen, which is why we'd want to try to get ALL camera's / equipment pre-set on Tuesday. If it can't be done, we can figure it out, we just will have to use the other entrance, schedule with service to have K9 crew, escort up, etc.

Two groups arriving is fine and expected. We can have someone come down and grab Neil and producers. They can go through North entrance on Pennsylvania Ave as long as they don't have Cameras and Equipment (which I presume will be the case).

Names don't need to be separated out actually, we'll get them all cleared for both days.

We'll figure it all out.

Thanks!
Seth

Hi Seth,

Yes, we will have a makeup artist with us and will include her on the crew sheet. I gave her a heads up that someone will bring her back to the Secretary just before the interview.

Speaking of makeup, she'll have a kit with her Wednesday morning and I assume that will need to go through security.

I am also inquiring about the 3rd cameraman – he may be assigned elsewhere Tuesday, which may be why he can't join the set up. Will see what time he finishes and if he can drop his gear Tuesday, otherwise would need to be Wednesday morning for him (with makeup, I assume).

You read my mind – I actually reminded everyone here already that we need to be all together and enter as a group and no stragglers.

On Wednesday, there will be two groups: One for the early crew at 7:30am. The second for Neil + some producers, who I'm told would like to arrive 8:30-8:45. I will be sure to separate these names on the list I send you shortly.

Hey Michele,

For Secret Service we need: Full Name (including middle), SSN, DOB, Current City of Residence, and whether a U.S. Citizen

Let's have your crew meet Tuesday at 15th and Hamilton entrance at 2:30 PM. Everyone needs to arrive at the same time because we need to have Secret Service provide a K9 for sweep. (This afternoon, half the crew arrived 15 minutes late and USSS wasn't happy to have to call the K9 unit out twice). As long as everyone arrives on time and together, we shouldn't have a problem getting them in the room by 3 PM for setup.

As long as whoever arrives on Wednesday gets his gear swept and in on Tuesday, it should be fine. If he has a camera, lights, roller, etc., we'll need to schedule the K9 crew again for Wednesday morning (which is what we'd like to avoid if possible).

If all gear is in on Tuesday, the crew can re-enter in the North / Pennsylvania Ave entrance without a problem on Wednesday at 7:30 AM. Just let me know and we can have someone meet them there in the morning to escort them up.

Assuming that the actual taping only goes for 15-20 minutes we should have time to shoot a quick b-roll walk and talk down the hall immediately after. The Secretary does have a hard stop at 10:00 am though.

Did you say you will have a makeup artist? If possible, we'd like to possibly have them do the Secretary's in his office just prior to the 9:30 shoot.

Please let us know.

Hi Seth,

The crew has been assigned and you will get our list of names today. I'm just waiting on the last couple of pieces of info for USSS clearance and will be sending you the info in one list.

Can you clarify the place of residence – is it current city of residence or city you were born in?

I spoke with the crew and checked their Tuesday schedule. Good news! We can definitely pre-set and pre-light this interview on Tuesday. Will be full crew except 1, who will build his setup on Wed. morning. The guys were asking if it's possible to head over a little earlier than 3pm on Tuesday. If not, no worries. They are hoping to be inside the room at 3pm at the latest, and arrive to the gate a little earlier to begin the security check in, like 2 or 230. Let me know what would work best for you all.

And, they were asking to get back in the room at 7:30am on Wednesday.

We're all looking forward to the interview! We would love to shoot some quick b-roll immediately following of the Secretary and Neil walking/talking in the halls of Treasury, if his schedule would allow for.

Of course. I made sure everyone was aware right away!

I'll push to have our crew pre-set Tuesday evening. It would make me feels better as well.

We are just waiting to get the final names and info of the crew and will send that over! Im hoping to have it tonight but by Monday morning at the latest.

Also, if your crew is able to get all of your equipment pre-set on Tuesday evening, that will be a huge help. Will relieve us of the need for a morning Secret Service K-9 crew on Wednesday, and should expedite everything. Just let me know on that front, and if you can get names/vitals by Monday morning we should be good.

Much appreciated!

Feel free to start promoting, but can't call it an exclusive at this point. We're not sure if the Secretary will talk with anyone else on Wednesday.

For crew, we'll need:

Full Name, SSN, DOB, City of Residence, U.S. Citizen (Y/N)

If you can get those details to us by Monday we'll be in good shape.

Thanks!

I'll get crew/contingent info to you latest Monday. What information do you need for the crew? Just name?

Thanks again and looking forward to the interview!

Hey Philip,

We just were able to clear time on the Secretary's schedule for 9:30 AM on Wednesday, March 1, to tape the interview with Neil. That should hopefully give you time to cut and feed back to NY for both FBN and FNC shows. Please email back for final confirmation.

General high-level topics he has been talking about this week have been: priorities in office, tax reform, regulatory reform, housing finance, and international discussions with counterparts. Obviously, he'd also be responding to the Tuesday night speech, and general monetary policy. Let us know if you have other pressing subjects.

On logistics, we'd be able to get you in here to Treasury either the night before to pre-set lights, etc., or early Wednesday morning. We'll eventually need vitals for your whole contingent/crew.

Thanks, and looking forward to it!

Hi Seth,

I hope all is well. Just wanted to follow up with you to see if we might be able to set something up for next week when Neil is in Washington.

In addition to being able to come to the Secretary and pre-tape an interview...we are live on Fox Business Network between Noon-2pm ET and on Fox News Channel between 4-5pm ET. Regardless of network the interview would air on both networks.

My name is Philip with Neil Cavuto at Fox News Channel. Neil is very interested in speaking with Secretary Mnuchin regarding tax policy/reform, regulations and monetary policy. Neil is the number one business show on TV with millions of viewers every day.

Neil will be live in Washington DC February 28th and March 1st for the President's address to Congress. Can we set up an interview with Secretary Mnuchin for either of those days? We are able to come to the Secretary for the interview.

Hey Philip,

Feel free to start promoting, but can't call it an exclusive at this point. We're not sure if the Secretary will talk with anyone else on Wednesday.

For crew, we'll need:

Full Name, SSN, DOB, City of Residence, U.S. Citizen (Y/N)

If you can get those details to us by Monday we'll be in good shape.

Hey Philip,

We just were able to clear time on the Secretary's schedule for 9:30 AM on Wednesday, March 1, to tape the interview with Neil. That should hopefully give you time to cut and feed back to NY for both FBN and FNC shows. Please email back for final confirmation.

General high-level topics he has been talking about this week have been: priorities in office, tax reform, regulatory reform, housing finance, and international discussions with counterparts. Obviously, he'd also be responding to the Tuesday night speech, and general monetary policy. Let us know if you have other pressing subjects.

On logistics, we'd be able to get you in here to Treasury either the night before to pre-set lights, etc., or early Wednesday morning. We'll eventually need vitals for your whole contingent/crew.

Thanks, and looking forward to it!

Thanks again David. I look forward to being on the show tomorrow. At 8 am. NO CAR btw. Here are a few of the items we discussed.

My official title is assistant secretary of the treasury for public affairs. You can refer to me also as spokes person for Treasury secretary Steven T Mnuchin.

Also as we discussed, let's just please be mindful that I am speaking in in official capacity, not in my past role as a Fox News contributor and political analyst. To that end I would appreciate that the questions from the panel focus on either the first foreign visit, or items in Treasury's portfolio. As much as I would ordinarily in the past be happy to talk about "the political news of the day " that is not something I planned to do tomorrow.

We would like to give Maria and the panel an opportunity to discuss the secretary's first foreign visit which included stops in London, Berlin, and the G 20 finance ministerial in Baden Baden, Germany.

I can offer colorful highlights and behind the scenes background of the trip. Clearly secretary Mnuchin garnered a tremendous amount of attention and interest among his foreign counterparts. He had 18 bilateral meetings and pull the sides on this trip, as well as sitting in on the sessions of the G 20 finance ministerial conference.

Of note were his meetings in London with the prime minister and the chancellor of the exchequer and Governor of the Bank of England. Also important watches meeting in Berlin with the finance minister, Who also presided over the finance ministerial in Baden Baden as representative of the host country Germany.

Very constructive Conversations were had and productive relationships fostered. Secretary Mnuchin emphasized the importance of sustained economic growth in the United States and globally.

The secretary thought the trip was incredibly productive and left Baden Baden feeling confident that by working in partnership with his counterparts they achieved consensus on steps to promote global growth and financial stability.

Hi Lynne!! So much going in and we need to definitely catch up soon. As you may have heard by now, I've joined the administration as a spokesperson in the Department of treasury. I had an interview this morning with Maria Bartiromo which went great, that FOXNews/Business.com wrote about below.

I hate to bother you with this, but the headline appears a bit incoherent and inconsistent with what I actually said.

My exact quotes (which the headline takes parts from 2 which is fine are:

"Humongous step in building that type of personal relationship and goodwill."

"building blocks for future progress"

Please let me know if you can help and would be great to connect next time I am back at fox.

Hey Tony – just checking in to see what day would work best for you next week?

For topics, we were thinking where we stand with the Trump administration agenda - if AHCA passes, then where we are on tax reform, trade, etc. and the impact of the bill on the economy.

Obviously, these topics could shift depending on the news of day.. but we'd keep them tailored to economic issues.

Let me know when you can. Thanks!

Hello all

I am connecting you to further discuss the opportunity for a town hall event on FBN. We could do POTUS and treasury secy Mnuchin together or just secy mnuchin. Since the priority has turned to tax reform, we thought we might want to start planning for a great event on air with an audience whenever the schedule will allow.

Thank you.

Best,

Hey Tara,

I just left you a voicemail. I wanted to reach out to discuss logistics for the Thursday interview with "After the Bell" in the 4 PM hour.

Logistics:

- FOX has a fiber connection into Treasury.
- FOX would need to provide a cameraman, lights and camera for the live shot.
- We would have a tech on hand to assist with the fiber / feed.

Tony has also discussed doing an interview with Lou Dobbs in the 7 PM hour on Thursday. We would propose that you have the same camera and cameraman do both hits.

In order to get set for the Thursday at 4 PM hit, we would need to get vitals for your Cameraman today: Full Legal Name, DOB, SSN, Current City of Residence, U.S. Citizen (Y/N). Have Cameraman arrive at 1 PM on Thursday, with gear, at the Hamilton Place entrance. He would be swept and led into Treasury (likely interview would take place in the Cash Room). That will give time to set camera, test live shot, etc. for 4 PM. After live shot in 4-5 PM hour, remain in place for live shot in 7 PM hour.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or to confirm logistics.

Thanks,
Seth

Tony has also discussed doing an interview with Lou Dobbs in the 7 PM hour on Thursday. We would propose that you have the same camera and cameraman do both hits.

In order to get set for the Thursday at 4 PM hit, we would need to get vitals for your Cameraman today: Full Legal Name, DOB, SSN, Current City of Residence, U.S. Citizen (Y/N). Have Cameraman arrive at 1 PM on Thursday, with gear, at the Hamilton Place entrance. He would be swept and led into Treasury (likely interview would take place in the Cash Room). That will give time to set camera, test live shot, etc. for 4 PM. After live shot in 4-5 PM hour, remain in place for live shot in 7 PM hour.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or to confirm logistics.

Thanks,
Seth

Hi Tony,

Are you available to join "After the Bell" in the 4pm ET hour one day next week?

We'll be discussing where we stand with the Trump administration agenda – if the health-care bill passes, then where we are on tax reform, trade, etc. and the impact of the bill on the economy. These topics could shift depending on the news of day, but we'll keep them tailored to economic issues.

You would be one-on-one with either Melissa Francis or David Asman.

Please let me know what day would work best.

Thank you!

Yes. We just heard back from one of your colleagues that it didn't sound like there would be a camera available on Thursday to do the interview here from Treasury. I just heard from Tony that in the absence of the ability to go live from here, his preference would be to do interviews from White House N Lawn. In that case it should be relatively straight forward on logistics. Feel free to call my cell below -- I do have a meeting from 2:45 - 4.

We can do the hit from the White House North Lawn, but there will be no makeup present. Our DC team does believe Tony would need White House clearance for this – and I can get you the camera man's information tomorrow morning in case you need help locating the camera.

Alternatively, we could do the hit from our DC Bureau located at 400 North Capitol St. It's about 3 miles away, but we will have makeup available there.

Please let me know which location is preferable.

Hi Seth –

Unfortunately, we are definitely unable to send the camera to the Treasury Department tomorrow. However, there are two other options.

We can do the hit from the White House North Lawn, but there will be no makeup present. Our DC team does believe Tony would need White House clearance for this – and I can get you the camera man's information tomorrow morning in case you need help locating the camera.

Alternatively, we could do the hit from our DC Bureau located at 400 North Capitol St. It's about 3 miles away, but we will have makeup available there.

Please let me know which location is preferable.

Thanks!

Hey Tara,

I just left you a voicemail. I wanted to reach out to discuss logistics for the Thursday interview with "After the Bell" in the 4 PM hour.

Logistics:

- FOX has a fiber connection into Treasury.
- FOX would need to provide a cameraman, lights and camera for the live shot.
- We would have a tech on hand to assist with the fiber / feed.

Tony has also discussed doing an interview with Lou Dobbs in the 7 PM hour on Thursday. We would propose that you have the same camera and cameraman do both hits.

In order to get set for the Thursday at 4 PM hit, we would need to get vitals for your Cameraman today: Full Legal Name, DOB, SSN, Current City of Residence, U.S. Citizen (Y/N). Have Cameraman arrive at 1 PM on Thursday, with gear, at the Hamilton Place entrance. He would be swept and led into Treasury (likely interview would take place in the Cash Room). That will give time to set camera, test live shot, etc. for 4 PM. After live shot in 4-5 PM hour, remain in place for live shot in 7 PM hour.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or to confirm logistics.

Thanks,
Seth

Hi Tony,

Are you available to join "After the Bell" in the 4pm ET hour one day next week?

We'll be discussing where we stand with the Trump administration agenda – if the health-care bill passes, then where we are on tax reform, trade, etc. and the impact of the bill on the economy. These topics could shift depending on the news of day, but we'll keep them tailored to economic issues.

Hello Seth,

We have these details for Tony's appearance at the White House today. Hit time is 425pm est. The location is closest to the west wing. Gregory is the crew member and will have a Fox News umbrella. His phone number is below. Topics are below. Does Tony need a car to and from the White House? Let me now if there are any other questions

Crew contact - Greg Khananayev – and his cell phone number is: (b)(6)

TOPIC 1 - Tax reform – How hard will this be to make happen? What will be the direction of the plan President Trump should bring to the table?

Topic 2 - GDP and trump Bump

Little Sign of a 'Trump Bump' in the Economic Forecast -

https://hyperlink.services.treasury.gov/agency.do?origin=https://www.nytimes.com/2017/03/29/business/economy/economic-growth-first-quarter.html?\_r=0

Topic 3 – NAFTA

Trump Administration Signals It Would Seek Mostly Modest Changes to Nafta – Sayegh – Trump has called it worst trade deal ever.. so??

One change would be in government-procurement section of deal that could open up door for 'Buy American' policies

Hello Seth,

We have these details for Tony's appearance at the White House today. Hit time is 425pm est. The location is closest to the west wing. Gregory is the crew member and will have a Fox News umbrella. His phone number is below. Topics are below. Does Tony need a car to and from the White House? Let me now if there are any other questions

Crew contact - Greg Khananayev – and his cell phone number is: (202) 320-2100.

TOPIC 1 - Tax reform – How hard will this be to make happen? What will be the direction of the plan President Trump should bring to the table?

Topic 2 - GDP and trump Bump

Little Sign of a 'Trump Bump' in the Economic Forecast -

Hi Seth –

Unfortunately, we are definitely unable to send the camera to the Treasury Department tomorrow. However, there are two other options.

We can do the hit from the White House North Lawn, but there will be no makeup present. Our DC team does believe Tony would need White House clearance for this – and I can get you the camera man's information tomorrow morning in case you need help locating the camera.

Alternatively, we could do the hit from our DC Bureau located at 400 North Capitol St. It's about 3 miles away, but we will have makeup available there.

Please let me know which location is preferable.

Thanks!
Tara

Hey Tara,

I just left you a voicemail. I wanted to reach out to discuss logistics for the Thursday interview with "After the Bell" in the 4 PM hour.

Logistics:

- FOX has a fiber connection into Treasury.
- FOX would need to provide a cameraman, lights and camera for the live shot.
- We would have a tech on hand to assist with the fiber / feed.

Tony has also discussed doing an interview with Lou Dobbs in the 7 PM hour on Thursday. We would propose that you have the same camera and cameraman do both hits.

In order to get set for the Thursday at 4 PM hit, we would need to get vitals for your Cameraman today: Full Legal Name, DOB, SSN, Current City of Residence, U.S. Citizen (Y/N). Have Cameraman arrive at 1 PM on Thursday, with gear, at the Hamilton Place entrance. He would be swept and led into Treasury (likely interview would take place in the Cash Room). That will give time to set camera, test live shot, etc. for 4 PM. After live shot in 4-5 PM hour, remain in place for live shot in 7 PM hour.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or to confirm logistics.

Thanks,
Seth

Hi Tony,

Are you available to join "After the Bell" in the 4pm ET hour one day next week?

We'll be discussing where we stand with the Trump administration agenda – if the health-care bill passes, then where we are on tax reform, trade, etc. and the impact of the bill on the economy. These topics could shift depending on the news of day, but we'll keep them tailored to economic issues.

- FOX has a fiber connection into Treasury.
- FOX would need to provide a cameraman, lights and camera for the live shot.
- We would have a tech on hand to assist with the fiber / feed.

Tony has also discussed doing an interview with Lou Dobbs in the 7 PM hour on Thursday. We would propose that you have the same camera and cameraman do both hits.

In order to get set for the Thursday at 4 PM hit, we would need to get vitals for your Cameraman today: Full Legal Name, DOB, SSN, Current City of Residence, U.S. Citizen (Y/N). Have Cameraman arrive at 1 PM on Thursday, with gear, at the Hamilton Place entrance. He would be swept and led into Treasury (likely interview would take place in the Cash Room). That will give time to set camera, test live shot, etc. for 4 PM. After live shot in 4-5 PM hour, remain in place for live shot in 7 PM hour.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or to confirm logistics.

Thanks,
Seth

Hi Tony,

Are you available to join "After the Bell" in the 4pm ET hour one day next week?

We'll be discussing where we stand with the Trump administration agenda – if the health-care bill passes, then where we are on tax reform, trade, etc. and the impact of the bill on the economy. These topics could shift depending on the news of day, but we'll keep them tailored to economic issues.

You would be one-on-one with either Melissa Francis or David Asman.

Please let me know what day would work best.

Thank you!

Good afternoon Seth and Tony,

We would love to have Sec. Mnuchin on with Lou as soon as possible. We are live in the 7p ET hour but can do a 6:15p ET pre-tape and in special circumstances possibly a 3pm pre-tape. Kindly let me know as soon as you have a moment if and when he will be available to join. Lou would be honored to have him on our program.

Hello, good morning. Can you confirm if the following Reuters story on potential North Korea sanctions is accurate (or not)? Thank you.

Despite sending a naval force to the Korean peninsula, the Trump administration is focusing its North Korea strategy on tougher economic sanctions, possibly including an oil embargo, banning its airline, intercepting cargo ships and punishing Chinese banks doing business with Pyongyang, U.S. officials say.

U.S. President Donald Trump has approved a preliminary broad approach on North Korea and asked his national security team to craft a more detailed framework for new international sanctions and other actions to counter Pyongyang's nuclear and missile programs, one official said.

"There's a whole host of things that are possible, all the way up to what's essentially a trade quarantine on North Korea," the official told Reuters on Wednesday, speaking on condition of anonymity.

Good Morning Ms. Alvarado,

I unfortunately have a conflict at 11:30. White House briefing is at noon and I have to be in place ½ hour prior. Is there any chance I can move my meeting with Tony to the 10am hour or after 4pm today?

Sorry for the last minute change

Hey Brittany,

On background, we don't generally telegraph sanctions or other measures that we take to combat the financial networks of gangs or other criminal organizations. Would be happy to add you to our distribution lists for releases related to our Terrorism and Financial Intelligence operations though, if you're interested. Just let me know.

Thanks!

Tony, thanks for making time for me yesterday. I candidly shared with my producer the need to be fair and not batter Secretary Mnuchin with the old soundbite about the August TAX Reform goal. Its old news. Never hesitate to contact me if my team gets anything wrong or is unfair.

I will try and take you up on the offer for lunch next week since I will again be at the White House but I suspect our world is going to go in to hyper drive when Congress returns.

Hey Tony...

AP is reporting that President Trump will unveil a tax reform plan next week that includes massive tax cuts for individuals and businesses. Here is my question, Secretary Mnuchin said in the briefing that the administration plan would come in June, so is the plan ready next week or did AP misunderstand and or get it wrong? Is there anything in the form of a statement I can use on air addressing this or even on background... I can attribute to administration source if necessary.

Thanks

Hi Adam – let me know if there is anything you need on the CR. As for the debt ceiling, I wanted to flag for you the letter Sec. Mnuchin sent to Congress last month: https://www.treasury.gov/initiatives/Documents/DL\_Letter\_20170316\_Ryan.pdf.

My contact info follows.

Thanks!

Hey Tony

Is there a point person at Treasury for press on the debt ceiling as we move towards Friday or shall I go through you? I don't want to miss any statements or developments in the negotiations between Administration/Treasury and Congress. I am on Treasury mail list so I have that covered.

Hope you had a good weekend

Hi Eric!

Great seeing you today. Thursday should work. Just got to check with WH comms. Also I would do the interview from WH.

Maria and I discussed the later start time. The only issue is the Secretary will be moving to an event pretty quickly after. My suggestion is to have everything set up. We will get there around 5. And we'll be prepared to start when Maria is ready.

Tony!! Hi there! Glad to speak with you in our new positions!

8:20pm would really be what we are looking for, if we can make that work. We won't move it later! Safe to say he'd be through by about 8:30pm.

Let me know if that works, and anything else you would need from me.

Press Release: April 27, 2017
Contact: Treasury Public Affairs, (202) 622-2960

Statement by the Secretary of the Treasury

Washington, D.C. – Secretary of the Treasury Steven T. Mnuchin released the following statement on the Financial CHOICE Act:

"As Secretary, I am committed to policies that will ensure sustained economic growth that is driven by Main Street and not held back by Washington. The existing regulatory system is limiting, not stimulating our economy. At the Treasury, we are focused on delivering regulatory relief that encourages banks to provide the capital and liquidity needed to create jobs and opportunities for growth, and that provides protection against taxpayer-funded bailouts. I applaud the steady commitment and leadership that Chairman Hensarling and his colleagues have provided on these issues, and welcome the reintroduction of the CHOICE Act. While I continue my work to implement the President's executive order setting the core principles for financial regulation, I look forward to working with Congress to both support and strengthen our financial system and safeguard taxpayers."

Hey,

Thanks for this. Look forward to being on. As a treasury spokesman I would prefer to focus on any questions related to the tax reform and plan – concerns about deficit, middle class etc.

Government shutdown, etc fine too.

I can also discuss some trade related topics.

But I can not really discuss the following as they are outside my jurisdiction:

Memorandum on aluminum imports & threat to national security

-Health care compromise

Tony, hope all is well. We're looking forward to segment. Lou was hoping you could email me a few talking points on the following and don't hesitate to let me know if there's something else you might want to address.

Best regards,
Bob Regan

-Trump won't pull out of NAFTA - discuss strategy

-Memorandum on aluminum imports & threat to national security

-Tax plan - concerns about deficit, middle class

-Health care compromise - dems threaten to shut down govt if vote on health care rushed

Spicer suggests 401Ks could be at risk after all Spicer, when asked directly about whether the 401K tax deferral could go away under the president's plan, suggested it would:
"The Secretary of the Treasury and Director Cohn yesterday both talked about that the current plan right now both protects charitable giving and mortgage interest and that's it.
And then again, maybe not. A couple of questions later, Spicer said, "Let me get to you on that, I was not clear on that distinction. I will have the Treasury folks read that out for you."

Hey Tony...

CNBC asked a question at the WH Briefing about 401ks. Sean's answer indicated that 401ks may be subject to tax changes. There was confusion by Spicer on deductions vs exemptions... I reported potential changes in my 2pm hit but now it appears I need to correct that.

The White House is saying that there is no plan to change 401k Tax Exemption. Can you confirm this so that I may send out a clarification to the network and report in the 4pm hour.

If however 401k exemption is open for negotiation please let me know.

Thanks

Hey Tony,

I've seen you more often in one week – than I saw you all last year! I was hoping to meet up with you as soon as you are available. I have a favor to ask of you.

I'm stopping by a party at the Carnegie Library tonight (during the second period of the Caps/Pens playoff game- which I'm also attending). You're welcome to the party as my guest.

If that doesn't work, let me know what works best for you.

Thanks, Tony!

Jon

RE: How much money is currently in the "Treasury Forfeiture Fund" ?

Hey Neil,

I spoke to the Treasury Executive Office for Asset Forfeiture, which oversees the Fund.

On background, here's what they relayed: We do not give out running balance numbers on the fund, as it is a non-appropriated account and the funding varies widely year to year and even month to month based on a number of different liabilities, nuances and variables. The fund balance is dependent upon court cases, victims remissions, rescissions from Congress, etc.

Here are links to the Treasury Executive Office for Asset Forfeiture (TEOAF) website, which includes annual accountability reports and other materials:

<http://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/terrorist-illicit-finance/Asset-Forfeiture/Pages/annual-reports.aspx> and
<http://www.treasury.gov/about/organizational-structure/offices/Pages/The-Executive-Office-for-Asset-Forfeiture.aspx>

The 2016 annual report has not yet been posted.

Hopefully this helps!

Hey David,

On background: We can't comment on a specific company, and as you mention the regulations still need to be formalized. However, consistent with the Administration's interest in not negatively impacting American businesses for engaging in lawful commercial opportunities, Cuba-related commercial engagements that include direct transactions with entities related to the Cuban military, intelligence, or security services that may be implicated by the new policy will be generally permitted provided that those commercial engagements were in place prior to the issuance of the forthcoming regulations.

Thanks,

John, Hope you are well. Wanted to reach out to you to see if you all might be interested in writing about an announcement we are making at 8:30 today about the winding down of the myRA program. As you may know, the program was announced by Obama at the 2014 state of the union. Our review found the program not to be cost effective. Here are some facts for your background:

- 20,000 accounts in the program with a median balance of $500. An additional 10,000 accounts with no money in them.
- Taxpayers have paid nearly $70 million to manage the program since 2014. Participants in the program have contributed $34 million to their accounts.
- Additionally, if the program continued, it would cost taxpayers approximately $10 million a year to manage the program.
- Retirement have options in the private sector that offer no account fees, no minimum balance, and safe investment opportunities.

Here is the press release we are sending out:

Treasury Announces Steps to Wind Down myRA Program

Washington, D.C. – The U.S. Department of the Treasury today announced that it will begin to wind down the myRA program after a thorough review by Treasury that found it not to be cost effective. This review was undertaken as part of the Administration's effort to assess existing programs and promote a more effective government.

Demand for and investment in the myRA program has been extremely low. American taxpayers have paid nearly $70 million to manage the program since 2014.

"The myRA program was created to help low to middle income earners start saving for retirement. Unfortunately, there has been very little demand for the program, and the cost to taxpayers cannot be justified by the assets in the program. Fortunately, ample private sector solutions exist, which resulted in less appeal for myRA. We will be phasing out the myRA program over the coming months. We will be communicating frequently with participants to help facilitate a smooth transition to other investment opportunities," said Jovita Carranza, U.S. Treasurer.

Retirement savers have options in the private sector that offer no account maintenance fees, no minimum balance, and safe investment opportunities.

Participants in the myRA program are being notified of the upcoming changes, including information on moving their myRA savings to another Roth IRA. Participants are encouraged to visit www.myRA.gov for additional information or to call myRA customer support with any questions.

"We are committed to promoting retirement savings, and, as Treasurer, I plan to devote a substantial amount of my time to ensuring more Americans have the tools and knowhow to save for retirement," said Carranza.

Let me know if you have any questions!

Thanks,

Marisol

The Trump Administration is considering financial options against China in the case it does not cooperate on North Korea.

"The president does not telegraph his punches. He'd like to have China's assistance, but if he doesn't get it, his options are open," according to a senior National Security Council official.

Hey Kristina,

On background: Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control doesn't comment on future designations or telegraph sanctions.

If you're looking for something on-the-record, here is Secretary Mnuchin's quote from the June 29 designations: "The Department of the Treasury is committed to protecting the U.S. financial system from North Korean abuse and maximizing pressure on the Government of North Korea until it abandons its nuclear and ballistic missile programs," said Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin. "While we will continue to seek international cooperation on North Korea, the United States is sending an emphatic message across the globe that we will not hesitate to take action against persons, companies, and financial institutions who enable this regime."

Hi Seth,

I'm a nat sec reporter for Breitbart News, nice to meet you digitally. I'm working on a story about our strategy to increase pressure on China to cooperate on North Korea.

-- I've heard from several officials that the administration has a list of potential financial measures it can take against China IF it does not cooperate with North Korea.

-- I'm told it's just so that the measures can be "ready to go" IF needed, that way the administration doesn't have to start over from scratch each time they are looked at.

-- On BACKGROUND, can you talk about what kinds of measures we have ready to go? I'm told that they include secondary sanctions. What kinds of other measures are there?

(I understand that China is being somewhat cooperative -- at least at the moment, so I don't want it to seem like we're on the verge of new sanctions, but just trying to explain how this strategy might work, and why).

I'm free to talk via phone or email. My deadline is end of today.

Thank you!

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 25, 2017

Statement by the Press Secretary on New Financial Sanctions on Venezuela

President Donald J. Trump has signed an Executive Order imposing strong, new financial sanctions on the dictatorship in Venezuela.

The Maduro dictatorship continues to deprive the Venezuelan people of food and medicine, imprison the democratically-elected opposition, and violently suppress freedom of speech. The regime's decision to create an illegitimate Constituent Assembly—and most recently to have that body usurp the powers of the democratically-elected National Assembly—represents a fundamental break in Venezuela's legitimate constitutional order.

In an effort to preserve itself, the Maduro dictatorship rewards and enriches corrupt officials in the government's security apparatus by burdening future generations of Venezuelans with massively expensive debts. Maduro's economic mismanagement and rampant plundering of his nation's assets have taken Venezuela ever closer to default. His officials are now resorting to opaque financing schemes and liquidating the country's assets at fire sale prices.

As Vice President Mike Pence has said, in Venezuela, "we're seeing the tragedy of tyranny play out before our eyes." No free people has ever chosen to walk the path from prosperity to poverty. No free people has ever chosen to turn what was once, and should still be, one of South America's richest nations into its poorest and most corrupt.

UST_00000326

#2924.210

We will not stand by as Venezuela crumbles. The President's new action prohibits dealings in new debt and equity issued by the government of Venezuela and its state oil company. It also prohibits dealings in certain existing bonds owned by the Venezuelan public sector, as well as dividend payments to the government of Venezuela.

To mitigate harm to the American and Venezuelan people, the Treasury Department is issuing general licenses that allow for transactions that would otherwise be prohibited by the Executive Order. These include provisions allowing for a 30-day wind-down period; financing for most commercial trade, including the export and import of petroleum; transactions only involving Citgo; dealings in select existing Venezuelan debts; and the financing for humanitarian goods to Venezuela.

These measures are carefully calibrated to deny the Maduro dictatorship a critical source of financing to maintain its illegitimate rule, protect the United States financial system from complicity in Venezuela's corruption and in the impoverishment of the Venezuelan people, and allow for humanitarian assistance.

The United States is not alone in condemning the Maduro regime. Through the Lima Declaration of August 8, our friends and partners in the region refused to recognize the illegitimate Constituent Assembly or the laws it adopts. The new United States financial sanctions support this regional posture of economically isolating the Maduro dictatorship.

The United States reiterates our call that Venezuela restore democracy, hold free and fair elections, release all political prisoners immediately and unconditionally, and end the repression of the Venezuelan people. We continue to stand with the people of Venezuela during these trying times.

Hello Marisol,

I wanted to reach out to see if the Treasury Department would like to comment on Secretary Mnuchin's suggestion that they could scrap the previous administration's plans to put Harriet Tubman on the $20 bill.

#2924.215

Is this under way or a mere suggestion by Secretary Mnuchin?

Dear Ms. McClure,

It was a pleasure speaking with you on the phone this morning.

I am including a few questions for Ms. Akil regarding a piece I'm working on about U.S. sanctions on Iran.

Instances of dual U.S.-citizens skirting Iran sanctions have come to light recently and it is likely more will surface in the coming months.

That said, I was hoping Ms. Akil could answer a few questions to help provide better context for this piece:

Can a U.S. citizen (with dual citizenship in a different country like China, India, Iran or Turkey) do business with Iran?

Are American citizens who skirt United States law to do business with Iran, in ways that benefit the Iranian regime, punished for this?

How many dual U.S. citizens did business in Iran in ways that cut or bypass the sanctions?

Have they been punished for this? And how?

Who is monitoring this activity?

Is the Department of Treasury monitoring this? Is the Department of State also involved with the monitoring process?

I appreciate your time in responding to these important questions.

Hey Adelle,

Below are some resources that should help answer your questions.

On background:

- The below JCPOA FAQ answers portions of your question, and can be found here: https://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Programs/Documents/jcpoa\_faqs.pdf

M.1 Are Iranian citizens who are permanent residents of the United States or dual U.S.- Iranian citizens located anywhere in the world generally permitted to conduct business or trade with Iranian companies or operate a business in Iran?

No. Both an Iranian citizen who is a permanent resident alien of the United States and an individual who is a dual U.S.-Iranian citizen meet the definition of a U.S. person set forth in section 560.314 of the ITSR, regardless of where in the world they are located. U.S. persons are generally prohibited under the ITSR from engaging in transactions or dealings involving Iran that are not exempt from regulation or authorized by OFAC. However, OFAC has issued a number of general licenses that authorize U.S. persons, including Iranian citizens who are permanent residents of the United States and dual U.S.-Iranian citizens located anywhere in the world, to conduct certain activities with regard to Iran that would otherwise be prohibited under the ITSR, such as the exportation to Iran of agricultural commodities (including food), medicine, and medical supplies and the exportation of hardware, software, and services incident to personal communications. The United States committed in the JCPOA to license certain activities involving U.S. persons, including the sale to Iran of commercial passenger aircraft and related parts and services, provided they are used exclusively for commercial passenger aviation; the importation of Iranian-origin carpets and foodstuffs; and activities involving Iran conducted by foreign subsidiaries of U.S. companies.

- While we don't comment on current investigations, American citizens who violate Treasury sanction authorities would likely be subject to OFAC enforcement authorities, and possibly other law enforcement authorities, subject to the facts of the case.
- Treasury works closely with law enforcement and the State Department on a daily basis.
- Treasury does not have statistics available on exactly how many dual citizens might have violated sanctions.
- OFAC actions are generally available on our website's Civil Penalties and Enforcement Information page: <https://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/CivPen/Pages/civpen-index2.aspx>

Hope this helps.

Thanks,
Seth

Thomas,

You can attribute the following to a Treasury Spokesperson:

“Treasury is prohibited by statute from publicly disclosing information filed with CFIUS. CFIUS reviews focus on national security concerns and Treasury takes the role as Chair of CFIUS very seriously, to ensure that CFIUS identifies and addresses any national security concerns posed by such foreign investment.”

Hi Jason,

Would you be able to provide me an update on the status of a CFIUS's decision on the Chinese company Zhongwang's planned acquisition of Aleris?

I understand CFIUS could make a decision at any point, but has been holding off.

Is the deal still under review?

Why hasn't CFIUS announced a decision on the merger?

Do you have a date or timeline for when you expect a decision from CFIUS?

Several lawmakers announced opposition to the proposed merger this summer. Is CFIUS taking their concerns into consideration?

Thanks,

Treasury Designates the IRGC under Terrorism Authority and Targets IRGC and Military Supporters under Counter-Proliferation Authority

---

From: "Alvarado, Carmen" <"o=ustreasury/ou=do/cn=recipients/cn=alvaradoc">
To: anazarian@breitbart.com

Treasury Designates the IRGC under Terrorism Authority and Targets IRGC and Military Supporters under Counter-Proliferation Authority

WASHINGTON – Today, the U.S. Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) designated Iran’s Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) pursuant to the global terrorism Executive Order (E.O.) 13224 and consistent with the Countering America’s Adversaries Through Sanctions Act. OFAC designated the IRGC today for its activities in support of the IRGC-Qods Force (IRGC-QF), which was designated pursuant to E.O. 13224 on October 25, 2007, for providing support to a number of terrorist groups, including Hizballah and Hamas, as well as to the Taliban. The IRGC has provided material support to the IRGC-QF, including by providing training, personnel, and military equipment.

Additionally, today OFAC designated four entities under E.O. 13382, which targets weapons of mass destruction proliferators and their supporters, for their support to the IRGC or Iran’s military.

“The IRGC has played a central role to Iran becoming the world’s foremost state sponsor of terror. Iran’s pursuit of power comes at the cost of regional stability, and Treasury will continue using its authorities to disrupt the IRGC’s destructive activities,” said Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin. “We are designating the IRGC for providing support to the IRGC-QF, the key Iranian entity enabling Syrian President Bashar al-Assad’s relentless campaign of brutal violence against his own people, as well as the lethal activities of Hizballah, Hamas, and other terrorist groups. We urge the private sector to recognize that the IRGC permeates much of the Iranian economy, and those who transact with IRGC-controlled companies do so at great risk.”

IRGC

The IRGC was designated today for the activities it undertakes to assist in, sponsor, or provide financial, material, or technological support for, or financial or other services to or in support of, the IRGC-QF. The IRGC, which is the parent organization of the IRGC-QF, was previously designated pursuant to E.O. 13382 on October 25, 2007, in connection with its support to Iran’s ballistic missile and nuclear programs, and pursuant to E.O. 13553 on June 9, 2011 and E.O. 13606 on April 23, 2012, in connection with Iran’s human rights abuses.

The IRGC has provided material support to the IRGC-QF, including by providing training, personnel, and military equipment. The IRGC has trained IRGC-QF personnel in Iran prior to their deployments to Syria, and has deployed at least hundreds of personnel from its conventional ground forces to Syria to support IRGC-QF operations. IRGC personnel in Syria have provided military assistance to the IRGC-QF, and have been assigned to IRGC-QF units on the battlefield, where they provide critical combat support, including serving as snipers and machine gunners.

Additionally, the IRGC has recruited, trained, and facilitated the travel of Afghan and Pakistani nationals to Syria, where those personnel are assigned to, and fight alongside, the IRGC-QF. The IRGC also has worked with the IRGC-QF to transfer military equipment to Syria. The IRGC used both IRGC bases and civilian airports in Iran to transfer military equipment to Iraq and Syria for the IRGC-QF.

Shahid Alamolhoda Industries, Rastafann, and Fanamoj

UST_00000339

#2924.223

OFAC also designated today three Iran-based entities pursuant to E.O. 13382 for their activities related to two key elements of Iran's military.

Shahid Alamolhoda Industries (SAI) was designated for being owned or controlled by Iran's Naval Defence Missile Industry Group (SAIG). SAIG, which is involved in the development and production of cruise missiles and is responsible for naval missiles, was designated pursuant to E.O. 13382 on June 16, 2010. SAIG also is sanctioned by the United Nations and the European Union. SAI, a direct subordinate to SAIG, is involved in the development of missile components.

Rastafann Ertebat Engineering Company (Rastafann) was designated for having provided, or attempted to provide, financial, material, technological, or other support for, or goods or services in support of, SAIG and the IRGC. Rastafann has provided radar systems to SAIG and communications equipment to the IRGC.

Fanamoj, the parent company of Rastafann, was designated for having provided, or attempted to provide, financial, material, technological, or other support for, or goods or services in support of, the IRGC. Fanamoj has designed components for the Iranian military's missile systems.

Wuhan Sanjiang Import and Export Co. LTD

Additionally, OFAC designated China-based Wuhan Sanjiang Import and Export Co. LTD (Wuhan Sanjiang) pursuant to E.O. 13382 for proliferation activities related to a key supporter of Iran's military. Wuhan Sanjiang has provided financial, material, technological, or other support for, or goods or services in support of, Iran's Shiraz Electronics Industries (SEI).

SEI was designated pursuant to E.O. 13382 on September 19, 2008, for being owned or controlled by Iran's Ministry of Defense and Armed Forces Logistics (MODAFL). SEI engaged in the production of various electronics equipment for the Iranian military, including radars, microwave electron vacuum tubes, naval electronics, avionics and control systems, training simulators, missile guidance technology, and electronic test equipment.

Since at least 2014, Wuhan Sanjiang has entered into contracts to sell SEI navigation-related gyrocompasses valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars. Wuhan Sanjiang has sold SEI a variety of highly specialized sensors valued at nearly one million dollars, and has taken steps to obfuscate those transactions to avoid detection.

Additionally, in 2011, Wuhan Sanjiang transferred six off-road lumber transporter vehicles to North Korea, which North Korea subsequently converted into Transporter-Erector-Launchers (TELs) for use in its ballistic missile program.

Hello,

I'm a fact check reporter with The Daily Caller News Foundation.

I am writing an article about defaced currency. Are there guidelines (formal or informal) you could provide me on what makes a dollar bill unfit for circulation?

I am on deadline, so I appreciate your prompt reply!

Sen. Cornyn requested that Secretary Mnuchin and CFIUS look at Broadcom's apparent hostile takeover of Qualcomm. Broadcom is currently headquartered in Singapore, but claims to be in the process of relocating in the US.

Has the Secretary/CFIUS begun investigating the merger as acquisition by a foreign entity?

On a related note, what is the status of the CFIUS investigation into Broadcom's acquisition of Brocade Communications Systems?

Hi Emerald- as it relates to your China questions, the Secretary gave three lengthy TV interviews ahead of this trip. At this time we don't have anything to add to what Sec. Mnuchin has been saying (see below). There are meetings tomorrow and Friday. When we have updates I will certainly let you know.

Mornings with Maria (4.30.18)

- "I'm looking forward to being there. We'll be there on Thursday and Friday, meeting the Vice Premier and many other people. We're looking to have a frank discussion on trade, on the issues of the trade imbalance. President Trump has been clear for the last year that he's very focused on the trade deficit and we're looking to correct that."
- "We will be talking to them about intellectual property right, forced technology, forced joint ventures, those are important issues that are on our list."
- "I don't know if they're tracking me or not tracking me, but we're not concerned about that, Maria. What we're concerned about is making sure that we have a good deal for American companies and American workers and that's something that President Trump has been very focused on."
- "I'm cautiously optimistic about the meetings. I don't want to predict what's going to happen and what's not going to happen. We're going to go over there and have discussions. These are issues that President Trump has been focused on for over the last year and hopefully we'll make significant progress. We're going there to make progress, that's our objective."
- "Maria, of course I'm not going to comment on what the president is going to do or not going to do. I will tell you the economic team meets regularly. We pretty much speak every day. Myself and Ambassador Lighthizer, Larry Kudlow, Secretary Ross, Peter Navarro, we're having discussions on these issues almost every day."

Bloomberg (4.30.18)

- "I'm on the trade issues and continue the discussions to see if we can reach a mutual solution to this. The good news is, President Trump and President Xi, since Mar-a-Lago, have been talking about the trade imbalance. President Xi acknowledged that the objective is to have a more balanced trading relationship. I think they have a close relationship and I'm going over there with our economic team to see what we can get."

CNNMoney (4.30.18)

- "These are trade disputes, they're not easy. And any negotiation isn't easy...when you negotiate, look where you are with North Korea. 6 months ago people said POTUS being too aggressive. We put the strongest sanctions ever on North Korea as a result of the maximum pressure campaign. They've come to the table to negotiate. They've now said they will give up their nuclear weapons, that's an incredible achievement."
- "I think as you know he's (POTUS) said we've lost the trade war with China, given the trade imbalance."
- "We're going in to have frank discussions. It's not a question of whether it's easy or hard. We're going there to have frank discussions to look for meaningful progress on trade."
- "If China unfairly targets our agricultural community or other areas, we will defend our interests. So we will protect our farmers and will make sure that they are not unfairly hurt in these trade disputes."
- "We have mechanisms of protecting our farmers and we will use that. So we're not going to be threatened by actions against farmers or anything else which is clearly political. But again, we're going over there to have frank discussions and we'll see where we get."
- "Well, first of all, I am looking forward to the trip. We've had discussions with them since over the last year. President Trump, since the first meeting at Mar-a-Lago with President Xi, developed a very good working and close relationship. But he was also very clear from the beginning that we have a very large trade imbalance and that's something that he wanted to work on. And President Xi acknowledged that and has instructed his teams to work on that. So I'm going over there for frank discussions and hope we can make serious progress."
- "Not at all. And let me be clear, we are not looking to pick a fight. This is about trade disputes, this is about negotiating what's good for American companies and workers. It's a one-sided deal. We buy over 500 billion of goods from them, they buy – again, plenty of people can buy our treasuries, if they want us to – again, not concerned about that at all. Treasury securities are the most liquid securities in the world and there is a robust market."

Hi Tony-

The WH suggested I reach out to you with my questions about the negotiations. They said you would be answering your email.

UST_0000352

#2924.236

I'm covering the negotiations for print and broadcast and here are some of the questions I have:

1. What model do you think his successful for these negotiations? What model of a successful outcome does the delegation have in mind?
2. Do you think the NAFTA negotiations have been productive?
3. Are you committed to building coalitions with allies to collaborate on addressing China's trade and industrial policies?
4. Do you envision working towards a bilateral investment treaty with China?
5. When the administration took a collection of business leaders in a delegation to China before, it was said they wanted to replicated their experience on the Saudi Arabian visit. What is the model this time?

Thanks, Tony, and safe travels!

Hi Sean,

This is Michelle Moons with Breitbart News. I understand that China has pulled out of planned U.S.-China trade meetings between high level officials including Sec. Mnuchin in DC this week. Can you tell me anything about that status of trade talks is between the U.S. and China at this point?

What is the next stage of the process with regard to potential additional tariffs beyond the $200 billion in Chinese goods that the U.S. just issued new tariffs on? The President has previously suggested that if China responded with additional tariffs, which they have on $60 billion more in U.S. goods, and if they don't change their "unfair" trade practices that the U.S. would levy even $300 billion more in tariffs. Where is the state/stage of consideration for even more tariffs on China?

Does the Secretary have a statement regarding the cancelation of the talks that were supposed to occur this week?

It sounds like China may be considering waiting until after the U.S. midterm election in November to resume talks — is this the case? What is the U.S. doing to make progress on the status of trade with China?

Please update me with whatever you are able.

Hello Diana,

My name is Nick Givas. I'm a reporter for the Daily Caller News Foundation. Carter DeWitt gave me your name and thought you'd be a good source for a story I'm working on.

I just wrapped up a human interest piece about someone hard hit by the estate tax named Buff Nelson. Also got Congressman Jason Smith of Missouri to comment.

On Round 2 here I want to do a deeper policy dive into the death tax and will be interviewing Anthony Davies. Author of the American Business Defense foundation report on the death tax. The stats of the piece will be largely drawn from this report.

Would you be free for a phone call next week? Or would it be alright if I emailed you some preliminary questions later this week to get the ball rolling?

Let me know your availability and I will rework my schedule to accommodate. Hope you have a pleasant week and I look forward to speaking with you.

Best,

Nick G.

Off the record- I would check with DHS and ask them what their gift authority is. This should also be helpful:

Treasury Department,

This is Jason Hopkins, a reporter for The Daily Caller News Foundation. As you may have heard, there is a trending GoFundMe campaign to fund the border wall. As I write this email, the page has raised nearly $12 million.

Is it possible for this money to help fund construction of a border wall? What can -- if anything -- be done with this donation?

Thank you for your time.

Regards,

Jason Hopkins

Hey guys,

I read at CNBC that a Treasury Department spokesperson working with the U.S. trade negotiations teams told CNBC that "neither Secretary Mnuchin nor Ambassador Lighthizer have made any recommendations to anyone with respect to tariffs or other parts of the negotiation with China."

Can you confirm that?

Also, I read on Bloomberg that Chinese officials have said they would increase its annual import of U.S. goods by a combined value of over $1 trillion.

Is that right?

Thanks.

Hi Krista,

I hope you're doing well.

Tony Sayegh would like to attend the Daily Caller's reception on March 7, but we will need to clear this through Ethics first. Could you please answer the following questions below?

Thanks!

Steve

1. Who is sponsoring/hosting the event?
2. What is the market value of the gift of free attendance at the event including food and refreshments (e.g., per person cost)? (If a ticket has a face price, that is the correct measure of its value).
3. How was this value determined?
4. Is the gift offered by a lobbyist or an organization that employs in-house lobbyists?
5. How many attendees are expected at the event?
6. Identify categories of other invitees (e.g., Members of Congress, industry representatives, other Federal employees, state or local officials, the media).
7. Will other Treasury employees be in attendance?
8. If "yes" to question #7, and if known, please identify the other Treasury employees
9. Is the invitation from someone other than the event sponsor?
10. ... If yes to question #9, who extended the invitation?
11. Does the invitation include attendance by the employee's spouse or other guest?
12. ...If yes to #11, will others in attendance generally be accompanied by a spouse or other guest?
13. Is the event a fundraiser?
14. ... If yes to question #13, for whom or what?
15. Are spouses or guests of the invitee also invited to attend?
16. Is this invitation extended to Tony in his official capacity as Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs, or is it a personal invitation?
17. What is the purpose of the event (e.g. educational, social, fundraising)?
18. How would the employee's attendance further Treasury's programs and operations?
