

Please forgive the delay on my end.

How does next week (Monday 6/18-Friday 6/22) look for you for the meeting we discussed below? At this point, Monday 6/18-Wednesday 6/20 work best on this end. If you have a preferred window during those first three days next week (or will be in the building for something else), with a couple of scattered appointments, I can make whatever works for you work.

Thanks again.

Hi John,
Sorry for the delay in my response. Our advisory board on accreditation is meeting on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and I need to be there, so would it be possible to meet next week?
Diane

Ms. Jones:

It was good to meet you last Friday to discuss ACICS, and thanks again for your time.

Per our conversation, I was planning on hosting a meeting with you and my main points of contact at Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE), who I know would be interested in what we discussed. The rest of this week does not look good on our end, but I can probably do any day next week that works for you, with the exception of Friday 5/25. Please let me know what day, if any, works for you next week. We can always look past next week, if necessary.

Thanks in advance for your assistance, and please feel free to call me if you want to discuss offline. All of my work contact information is below.
