A More thoughtful way to look at this on background.

Earlier today, DOJ and DHS released the Alien Incarceration Report for the First Quarter of the Fiscal Year 2018. The report details the consequences of not enforcing the rule of law along our Southwest Border by examining the immigration status and crimes committed by all aliens federally incarcerated by the Bureau of Prisons (BOP) and United States Marshals Service (USMS). The report attempts to analyze the effects of illegal immigration within the state and local criminal justice systems showing that state and local systems bear a huge burden when aliens commit crimes in the United States.

- For example, More than 251,000 criminal aliens have been booked in local Texas jails between June 1, 2011 and April 30, 2018, and—according to DHS data—more than 65% of those aliens were in the United States illegally at the time of their last arrest.
- • * Those criminal aliens were charged with more than 663,000 criminal offenses.
 - • * 1,351 homicide charges were brought against aliens, and have resulted in nearly 600 convictions.
 - • * 79,900 drug charges in Texas—a primary smuggling and distribution route—as the nation is gripped by the opioid epidemic.
 - • * 9,938 weapons charges as the nation works to eliminate transnational criminal organizations like MS-13.
 - • * 79,049 assault charges; 44,882 theft charges; and 7,156 sexual assault charges.

The report is available here.

That brings us to Philadelphia, where just yesterday we saw the Philadelphia mayor celebrating the cities status as a sanctuary. A sanctuary for whom you ask? Illegal aliens. The mayor was celebrating that he is prioritizing criminal illegal aliens above the constituents he purports to protect. Who are the criminals he's protecting?

In an operation from May 25, 2017 – these are just some of the crimes that ICE has arrested criminal aliens for in Pennsylvania.
