Dear FOIA Officer:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552, Democracy Forward Foundation submits this request for records.

The Department of Justice (“DOJ”) and the Federal Bureau of Investigations (“FBI”) has recently officially acknowledged that it closed an investigation into “Border Czar” Tom Homan, which was launched in the summer of 2024, that looked into allegations that Homan was soliciting payments in exchange for potential action in the future if President Trump won the 2024 election and appointed Homan to serve in his administration.¹ Democracy Forward Foundation seeks one specific record created during the investigation: a video recording of an exchange between FBI agents and Horman in 2024. The requested record is not exempt from production, as the administration has acknowledged the existence of the investigation itself and has noted that it is now closed.

Records Requested

Democracy Forward Foundation (“DFF”) requests that the Department of Justice (“DOJ”) produce the following within twenty (20) business days:

Any recording (either video or audio) of the meeting on or around September 20, 2024 in Texas between undercover FBI agents and Tom Homan.²

Public reporting makes clear that there are investigation files related to the Homan matter, and these are appropriate locations to search for responsive records. Additionally, reporting indicates that Justice Department leadership, including former acting Deputy Attorney General Emil Bove, were briefed on the Homan investigation in the early days of this administration.

Democracy Forward Foundation expects this request for one readily identifiable record regarding a high-profile matter will be assigned to the Simple processing track and processed expeditiously.

The timeframe for the above search should be for records created from September 1, 2024 until the date of the search. However, despite this long time frame, the responsive records have likely been reviewed since January 20, 2025.

Scope of Search

FOIA requires agencies to disclose information, with only limited exceptions for information that would harm an interest protected by a specific exemption or where disclosure is prohibited by law. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(8)(A). In the event that any of the requested documents cannot be disclosed in their entirety, we request that you release any material that can be reasonably segregated. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b). Should any documents or portions of documents be withheld, we further request that you state with specificity the description of the document to be withheld and the legal and factual grounds for withholding any documents or portions thereof in an index, as required by Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973). Should any document include both disclosable and non-disclosable material that cannot reasonably be segregated, we request that you describe what proportion of the information in a document is non-disclosable and how that information is dispersed throughout the document. Mead Data Cent., Inc. v. U.S. Dep’t of Air Force, 566 F.2d 242, 261 (D.C. Cir. 1977).

If requested records are located in, or originated in, another agency, department, office, installation or bureau, please refer this request or any relevant portion of this request to the appropriate entity.

To the extent that the records are readily reproducible in an electronic format, we would prefer to receive the records in that format. However, if certain records are not available in that format, we are willing to accept the best available copy of each such record.

Please respond to this request in writing within 20 working days as required under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i). If all of the requested documents are not available within that time period, we request that you provide us with all requested documents or portions of documents that are available within that time period. If all relevant records are not produced within that time period, we are entitled to a waiver of fees for searching and duplicating records under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(viii)(I).

Request for Fee Waiver

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii) and your agency's regulations, DFF requests a waiver of all fees associated with processing records for this request. FOIA requires documents to be furnished to requesters at no fee or reduced fees "if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A).

In determining whether a fee waiver is appropriate, courts consider whether a requester has a "demonstrated . . . ability to disseminate the requested information," Cause of Action v. F.T.C., 799 F.3d 1108, 1116-17 (D.C. Cir. 2015), and whether the requester regularly disseminates records obtained through FOIA to "a reasonably broad audience of persons interested in the subject" of its work. Carney v. U.S. Dep't of Justice, 19 F.3d 807, 814-15 (2d Cir. 1994). FOIA does not require a requester to describe exactly how it intends to disseminate the information requested, as that would require "pointless specificity"; all that is necessary is for a requester to adequately demonstrate its "ability to publicize disclosed information." Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Rossotti, 326 F.3d 1309, 1314 (D.C. Cir. 2003). In evaluating a fee waiver request, courts consider how a requester actually communicates information collected through FOIA to the public, including press releases or a website where documents received are made available, see id., or whether the requester has a history of "contacts with any major news[] companies" that suggest an ability to disseminate materials of interest through the press. Larson v. C.I.A., 843 F.2d 1481, 1483 (D.C. Cir. 1988) (upholding a denial of a fee waiver to a requester who had failed to identify his relationships with newspaper companies that could disseminate documents).

The requested waiver is in the public interest because providing the copy of the information sought primarily benefits the general public. Democracy Forward Foundation has a demonstrated ability to disseminate information of public interest requested through freedom of information statutes, and based upon responses to this request may assist in publicizing records received to contribute to the public's understanding of the closed case against "Border Czar" Tom Homan and his acceptance of bribes relating to his potential role in the Trump administration pending the results of the election. The records sought will also show the extent of an agency official taking funds in order to potentially direct government contracts to specific groups. Indeed, records received by Democracy Forward Foundation have previously formed the basis of news reports.³

Democracy Forward Foundation is not filing this request to further any commercial interest, and any information obtained by Democracy Forward Foundation as a result of this request and disclosed will be disclosed at no cost.

If the request for a waiver is denied, we are willing to pay all reasonable fees incurred for searching and duplicating records in responding to this request, up to $50. If the costs of responding to this request should exceed that amount, please contact us before incurring costs exceeding that amount.
